Jan 24: Idea Risk Management: A Practical Framework For Turning Ideas Into Results

Ideas exist within a high-risk, survival-of-the-fittest environment, and most die before they have an impact. The biggest risk any idea faces within your organization is that of getting lost in the muddle of the thousands of competing ideas that float through the environment on any given day. This highly interactive workshop will give you practical tools for identifying and mitigating risks to both tactical and strategic ideas within your organization. You will then apply these tools to a specific idea within your environment to increase the probability of its success.

Dr. John Eggert has helped leaders turn ideas into results in organizations as diverse as Arthur Andersen, Blue Cross/Blue Shield, British Petroleum, Citicorp, CNA Insurance, Ford Motor Company, General Motors, Hewlett-Packard, McDonalds, Motorola and Xerox. He has run his own performance improvement firm for over 30 years and has served on the graduate faculty of Syracuse University. He now spends his professional time coaching executives and their teams and giving presentations on Idea Risk Management. John holds a PH.D. in Social Science, with an emphasis on statistics and measurement.

Feb 16: Speak To Be Heard!: Influencing Others to Take Action

Stacey Hanke will help you eliminate the static that plagues communicative delivery - to persuade, sell your ideas, motivate and influence others to act on what you have to say. She will explain the positive actions you can take to increase your impact and value to your peers, clients and teams. This highly interactive session will show you how to immediately implement the influence skills and techniques you learn to your day-to-day conversations. (NOTE: Participants should bring a smartphone or iPad with them to the session.)

Stacey Hanke is co-author of the book Yes You Can! Everything You Need From A To Z To Influence Others To Take Action. Her second book, Influence Redefined, will be released in early 2017. Stacey is founder of Stacey Hanke Inc. She has trained over 15,000 people to rid themselves of bad body language habits and choose words wisely.

Mar 21: Dealing with Difficult People: Bringing Out the Best in Others

Dr. Brinkman says, Communication is like a phone number, you need all the correct digits and in the right order. Dr. Rick will share his proven strategies to handle: Whining, Negativity, Attacks, Tantrums, Snipers, Know-it-Alls, Think-They- Know-it-Alls, as well as Yes, Maybe and Nothing people. The examples and practical skills in this seminar will immediately transform behaviors that used to strain all relationships, both business and personal! It will even include special contexts like email communications, phone and meetings.

Dr. Rick Brinkman is the developer of Conscious Communication seminars and the principal of Rick Brinkman Productions, Inc. He has performed over 4000 programs in 18 countries. In addition, he is co-author of numerous books including the international bestseller, Dealing With People You Can't Stand, How to Bring Out the Best in People at Their Worst, which has been translated into 25 languages. ## Apr 12: Leading Change: A Manager's Guide to Inspiring Your Team

Middle and senior managers who are experiencing rapid change within their organizations will find this program to be essential to their success. With survey responses from over 100,000 employees around the world, we'll examine what managers and leaders in the Best-of-the-Best organizations do to inspire their teams. We will explore why some people treat change as a catalyst to higher performance and why others fight it every step of the way.

Peter Barron Stark, President of Peter Barron Stark Companies, is a consultant, coach, speaker, author and co-creator of The Managers Toolkit. Peter is one of only a handful of speakers to hold the prestigious dual designation of Accredited Speaker from Toastmasters International and the Certified Speaking Professional from the National Speakers Association. Over the past twenty years, organizations around the world have called upon Peter to transform their cultures and maximize the effectiveness of their leaders. He has coached more than 400 executives, managers and supervisors on the art of leading people. Peter specializes in helping leaders improve their communication skills, build stronger relationships, hold direct reports accountable and build a reputation for delivering superior results.

May 09: Design Thinking for Problem Solving and Improving Profitability

This seminar is designed to introduce a set of systems and design thinking concepts and principles that enable you to develop an understanding of complex situations to cope with the challenges of value migration in your organization. Using actual organizational experiences, participants will learn a new framework to create value through the design of great products, experiences and services. Specifically, designing an innovative business model that can successfully operate in diverse organizational contexts (simple, complicated and complex), each of which requires a different approach to planning, management, leadership and decision-making. In particular, participants will learn how to avoid solving wrong problems by integrating a systems thinking mindset with a design thinking methodology. Situation awareness, planning when forecasting is not possible, anticipation through pattern recognition and avoiding strategic blindness will be discussed.

Dr. John Pourdehnad is an educator/consultant in the field of strategic management and change, using systems thinking as a worldview and design thinking as a methodology to solve complex interactive problems. He also holds a faculty appointment in the graduate studies program of Organizational Dynamics at the University of Pennsylvania. His career spans more than three decades working in management, consulting, education and research. He has held senior global management positions in industries including automotive, household appliances and hi-tech. As a scholar-practitioner he has consulted with large and small for-profit and not-for-profit organizations across many industries and with government agencies helping management and leadership teams develop strategic plans and transformational roadmaps.
