Sep 19: Balance: How to Improve Work Performance AND Live a Whole, Healthy Life

Doing what comes naturally - what millions of years of evolution have programmed us to do - may be perfectly normal, but it's not necessarily healthy. Where, in the headlong "progress" of the human race, do you really fit in? Take a minute to find out, and find yourself, in this workshop devoted to the proposition that a whole, healthy, heartfelt life is something that each of us must and can learn-and earn-anew. This workshop will open your eyes to a whole new perspective on balancing work and life.

Bowen White, M.D. author of Why Normal Isn't Healthy, has the talents and expertise of a physician, speaker, consultant, and author. As an organizational physician and an associate of the Patch Adams Group, Dr. White emphasizes the need for individuals to take responsibility for their own health and well being and helps organizations create productive and healthy workplaces.

Oct 16: The Changing Rules of Strategy: New Mindsets for a New World

In this session, Professor Hewitt will present a practical model of "disruptive foresight". This will enable participants to do five key things: (1) spot and decipher early signals of competitive disruption in their industry; (2) analyse the forces driving disruption and their likely consequences; (3) consider realistic strategic options to benefit from disruption; (4) ensure the organization acquires the capabilities to handle game-changing challenges; (5) drive a deep mind set shift throughout the organization, well beyond the legacy of traditional change management models.

Professor Gordon Hewitt is widely acknowledged as one of the world's leading authorities on the challenge of competing and creating value in dynamic, complex markets. He has been involved in major strategy and top leadership development programs for corporations such as Pfizer, Sony, Honeywell, Time Warner and IBM. In addition, he has chaired meetings of European and American CEOs and Board Chairman to discuss the future of corporate strategy and governance.

Nov 08: How Innovative Thinking Leads to Extraordinary Outcomes

Successful organizations operate on the edge of chaos and embrace risk, error, and ambiguity, while practicing strategies that reduce the need for doing, undoing, and redoing. You will learn key strategies and practical tools to give you the adaptive capacity to work creatively with change and uncertainty. We will discuss strategies for tapping the human potential for creative thinking, from the inception of ideas to their transformation into practical business strategies and innovations. Learn how effective leaders infuse all levels of the organization with the creative capacity to achieve extraordinary outcomes.

Dr. Iris Firstenberg is an Adjunct Associate Professor of Psychology, UCLA and Adjunct Associate Professor of Management at UCLA Anderson School of Management. ## Dec 05: Becoming the Leader that Others Want to Follow: Essential Skills for Building Engagement, Teamwork, and Results

Leaders are challenged to not only recruit and select top talent but also to retain their best in an environment of uncertainty and change. As 'A players' search for the best companies - and continually hone their resumes - a key strategy to retain them is to fully engage them. This session will share the state of engagement in today's workplaces including how each generation views work and their place in it. Strategies and techniques will include enhancing your leadership acumen, building effective and trusting teams, engaging all generations of employees by understanding their needs and maintaining your personal resilience to be the very best leader that you can be.

Dr. Jan Ferri-Reed is a seasoned consultant and President of KEYGroup, a 28-year Pittsburgh-based speaking, education and assessment firm. She has presented a variety of programs to thousands of managers and employees in a diverse range of organizations across the globe. She provides guidance, wisdom and wit to leaders who want to create productive and profitable workplaces.

Jan 29: Exceptional Leadership: Skills Every Manager must Master

Every manager has the opportunity to be a great leader! Leadership is the quality necessary for managers who need to accomplish objectives with and through people. With survey responses from over 100,000 employees around the world, we'll examine what managers in the Best-of-the-Best organizations do to lead and inspire their teams. In this interactive session, we will discuss and action plan in the areas of developing and communicating a vision, leading change, coaching and inspiring team members. The difference between the companies that will be the success stories of the future and those who will struggle in their shadows boils down to the leadership provided by the organization's management team. Simply put, your team members deserve great leadership.

Peter Barron Stark, President of Peter Barron Stark Companies, is co-author of The Competent Leader and Engaged! How Leaders Build Organizations Where Employees Love to Come to Work. Peter is one of only a handful of speakers to hold the prestigious dual designation of Accredited Speaker from Toastmasters International and the Certified Speaking Professional from the National Speakers Association. Peter specializes in helping leaders improve their communication skills, build stronger relationships, hold direct reports accountable and build a reputation for delivering superior results. He has been published worldwide in over 300 articles, has written ten books, and created The Managers Toolkit, a subscription-based website to help turn managers into leaders. Peter's expertise has been featured by American Executive, Investors Business Daily, The New York Times, CNN, Bloomberg, Inc.com and USA Today.

Feb 20: Championing Your Ideas at Work: Becoming Your Own Best Advocate

Successful advocates know how important it is to clearly communicate their ideas, how their reputations shape how people respond to their ideas, how they need to build partnerships and alliances with others in getting ideas adopted, how they must "pre-sell" any idea long before formal meetings, and how to be persuasive and influential in meetings. We will discuss new research on each of those topics - research that offers you interesting and surprising ways to champion innovations in your organization.

Dr. John Daly is the Liddell Professor in the College of Communication, Distinguished Teaching Professor, and TCB Professor of Management at the University of Texas at Austin. He teaches graduate and undergraduate courses on topics such as interpersonal communication, organizational behavior, and advocacy and persuasion. He has won every major undergraduate teaching award at the University of Texas. He has published more than one hundred scholarly articles, and completed nine books, including, most recently, Advocacy: Championing Ideas and Influencing Others (Yale) as well as The SAGE Handbook of Interpersonal Communication. He has served as President of the National Communication Association and on the Board of Directors of the International Communication Association and the International Customer Service Association. His work has appeared in major popular outlets like the Washington Post, Wall Street Journal, New York Times. He has worked with Goldman Sachs, Morgan Stanley, Marriott, American Airlines, Roche, Amgen, Pfizer, Astra-Zeneca, State Farm, Kraft, ExxonMobil, Shell, Texas Instruments, UPS, FedEx-Kinkos, 3M, Dell, IBM, AT&T, USAA, Prudential, and Samsung, among many others.

Mar 29: Breakthrough Ideas: How to Become a More Strategic Thinker

Intended for leaders who currently work with strategy, the focus of this session is on the learning aspect of strategic thinking: what it is and how to strengthen your own strategic thinking and energize the strategic capability of your organization. Being strategically competitive in today's chaotic and complex global environment requires a different way of looking at how we approach strategic thinking. Leaders who are tasked with strategic responsibility must be attentive, agile, adaptive and innovative thinkers. Four key issues are addressed in this session: Why do organizations need strategic thinkers? What is strategic thinking? Who is a strategic thinker? How can strategic thinking be developed?

Dr. Julia Sloan, author of the definitive book Learning to Think Strategically, is widely recognized for her pioneering work in the application of complex cognitive theory to everyday global strategic thinking practice. Her work draws upon more than two decades of her own expatriate corporate experience working on strategy to align the business agenda with prevailing economic, cultural and social issues.

Apr 12: Boosting Productivity: Gaining Back Time for Yourself and Your Team

Do you have employees or colleagues with access to your schedule who turn your calendar into a circus? Do you or your team ever have to put in frantic hours to finish projects at the last minute? Have you ever muttered a phrase like, I didn't get anything done today or I wish I had more time? Busy professionals lose up to three hours per day from time leaks. Interruptions, procrastination, distractions, putting out fires, and battling overwhelm are all slow leaks that steal your time when you're not looking. In the business world, this adds up to over ten thousand dollars of lost time per employee each year. In your personal world, this equates to more stress and less quality time with your loved ones. This interactive seminar will give you a crash course on the strategies and tactics that you can implement immediately in order to improve your negotiations with time, plug these time leaks, and tell your time what to do!

By teaching go-getters how to improve their efficiency, Time Management Fixer Helene Segura, MA Ed, CPO helps companies and agencies lower employee stress levels, decrease absenteeism, improve retention and leadership, and increase revenue. Known for her thought-provoking, yet entertaining time management keynotes and seminars that teach practical productivity tools, Helene delivers an experience that resonates deeply and inspires change. Helene has been the featured organizational expert in more than 150 media interviews and is the author of three books - two of which were Amazon best-sellers. Her latest book, The Inefficiency Assassin: Time Management Tactics for Working Smarter, Not Longer (New World Library), is the go-to time management resource for thousands of professionals around the world.

May 21: Dealing with Difficult People: Bringing Out the Best in Others

Dr. Brinkman says, "Communication is like a phone number, you need all the correct digits and in the right order." Dr. Rick will share his proven strategies to handle: Whining, Negativity, Attacks, Tantrums, Snipers, Know-it-Alls, Think-They-Know-it-Alls, as well as Yes, Maybe and Nothing people. The examples and practical skills in this seminar will immediately transform behaviors that used to strain all relationships, both business and personal! It will even include special contexts like email communications, phone and meetings.

Dr. Rick Brinkman is the developer of Conscious Communication seminars and the principal of Rick Brinkman Productions, Inc. He has performed over 4000 programs in 18 countries. In addition, he is co-author of numerous books including the international bestseller, Dealing With People You Can't Stand, How to Bring Out the Best in People at Their Worst, which has been translated into 25 languages. ## Jun 26: Influence to Impact: Leveraging Interpersonal Power for Women Leaders

Influence is a crucial competency that enables leaders to succeed in the global marketplace. This program is a highly interactive, leadership development workshop for women. In this course women come to understand the three levels of power involved in influencing, they discover their I2I (Influence to Impact) influence profile, they are taught the power of language and the role gender plays in organizational influence, they are taught to use dialogue as an influence tool, and are taught the secrets of leveraging the hidden power of the organization.

Dr. Jeanne Porter King is a seasoned organizational development consultant, author and inspirational speaker that has been called to lead and make a difference in the lives of others. She has worked in a number of development roles in Fortune 100 companies, which includes working as Senior Consultant in the Diversity Practice of Price Waterhouse.

Jul 15: Take Your High-Performance Leadership Thinking to the Next Level.

High-Performance Leaders are achievement oriented. They are visionary, purposeful, decisive and they get results. At the same time, they relate well to people. They are compassionate, authentic and courageous. But what sets them apart is they have great self awareness and systems awareness. This enables them to effectively navigate stress and change. As High Performance Conscious Leaders, they have the capacity to create highly engaged cultures that drive greater business performance and thriving enterprises. Through a mix of groundbreaking science, story, and experiential learning, you'll learn a powerful neuroscience and mindfulness-based 4-step system to learn new ways to master stress, transform your mindset, take your leadership to the next level and make an even bigger difference in the lives of those who you serve.

Dr. Daniel Friedland, is an expert on the science and practice of High-Performance Conscious Leadership and author of Leading Well from Within: A Neuroscience and Mindfulness-Based Framework for Conscious Leadership. Dr. Danny helps leaders and their organizations leverage neuroscience and mindfulness-based skills and practices to better navigate stress, clarify vision and purpose, and create high performing teams and thriving cultures to multiply their success and positive impact in the world. His expertise from publishing one of the early textbooks on Evidence-Based Medicine has enabled him to apply science-based solutions to leadership growth and development. He not only understands the science of leadership, but having served as the Founding Chair of the Academy of Integrative Health and Medicine and Co-Chairman of the San Diego Chapter of Conscious Capitalism, intimately understands the blessings and challenges of leadership, and the growth it asks. He serves as the CEO of SuperSmartHealth, where he provides keynote addresses, workshops and executive coaching to cultivate High Performance Conscious Leadership. He speaks at national and global conferences and his clients include Fortune 500 companies and healthcare systems.

Sep 12: Managing & Leading: Strategies to Help You Excel at Both

This session will explore the essential strategies and techniques required to powerfully lead and manage simultaneously from the same role. Being a manager is one of the most arduous and yet most valuable roles in any organization. The challenge lies in dealing with the expectations of those above and below you while also contributing to people's success around you. When you master this, you will discover how to impact any organization from the middle. You will leave this class with the skills needed to powerfully evolve into a successful Manager.

Ms. Ann Tardy, a former Silicon Valley corporate attorney and a current leadership expert, speaker, and author, Ann has been studying how people impact organizations from the middle for over 25 years. As the author of four books, Ann serves as the Founder and CEO of LifeMoxie Mentoring & Leadership and the Founder and Director of The Mentoring Council. She has cycled from San Francisco to New Jersey and down each coast in a quest to discover what people love about their jobs. Her documentary Work Matters captured the interviews she conducted on the bike.

Oct 16: Critical Decision Making: The Role of Constructive Conflict

Through fascinating examples from history, including the Bay of Pigs, Cuban Missile Crisis, and the tragedy on Mount Everest, this workshop will explore the following: the five myths of executive decision making; how to foster open debate; how to achieve "diversity in counsel, unity in command"; how to move to closure: overcoming the inability to decide; avoiding "analysis paralysis" and other pitfalls; how to gain the whole-hearted commitment to act; and how to address hidden doubts that could undermine your final decision.

Prof. Michael Roberto is the Trustee Professor of Management at Bryant University. He previously served for six years on the faculty at Harvard Business School. His book, "Why Great Leaders Don't Take Yes For An Answer", was named one of the top 10 business books of 2005 by The Globe and Mail, Canada's largest daily newspaper. He has taught in leadership development programs and consulted at a number of firms including Morgan Stanley, Home Depot, Mars, The World Bank and Lockheed Martin.

Nov 05: Leadership Presence: Sending All the Right Signals

Leadership presence, frequently called the "wow factor", is a blending of personal and interpersonal skills that when combined, send all the right signals. Backed by neuroscience and based on research from Harvard, Stanford, UCLA, MIT Media Lab, and Columbia School of Business, this interactive session gives participants tools and strategies they can put into action immediately.
