Jan 24: Dealing with Difficult People: Bringing Out the Best in Others

Dr. Brinkman says, Communication is like a phone number, you need all the correct digits and in the right order. Dr. Rick will share his proven strategies to handle: Whining, Negativity, Attacks, Tantrums, Snipers, Know-it-Alls, Think-They- Know-it-Alls, as well as Yes, Maybe and Nothing people. The examples and practical skills in this seminar will immediately transform behaviors that used to strain all relationships, both business and personal! It will even include special contexts like email communications, phone and meetings.

Dr. Rick Brinkman is the developer of Conscious Communication seminars and the principal of Rick Brinkman Productions, Inc. He has performed over 4000 programs in 18 countries. In addition, he is co-author of numerous books including the international bestseller, Dealing With People You Can't Stand, How to Bring Out the Best in People at Their Worst, which has been translated into 25 languages. His clients have included Pepsico, LucasFilm, IBM, the VA, the Astronaut Corps, the FBI and Sony Pictur.

Feb 24: The One Day MBA: The Tools You Need for World-Class Performance

All managers need a broad perspective to effectively deal with the complex challenges they face daily. To develop this skill, this one-day seminar presents many of the tools and techniques found in MBA programs today. Specifically, participants will examine how basic business processes drive financial results, learn how effective risk management can improve business planning and decision making, and explore how financial and non-financial measures can best be used to evaluate operating results.

Dr. Barsky is currently a professor at the Villanova University School of Business. He has also taught as a visiting professor in the Executive MBA program at Washington University in St. Louis and the INSEAD MBA program in Europe. He has been a faculty member with the Institute for Management Studies since 2001. His research and teaching focus on performance measurement, business planning, risk assessment, and contemporary financial reporting issues. Dr. Barsky develops and delivers executive education programs for various Fortune 100 companies, global professional services firms, and industry associations in North America and Europe. In addition to professional experience in the fields of accounting and finance as an analyst, auditor, and business consultant, Dr. Barsky has also served on business advisory boards and as the Treasurer for a retailing cooperative. He has authored five books and published over seventy articles in various academic and professional journals, including Strategic Finance, The Economist, Best Practices in Executive Decision Making, Commercial Lending Review, Corporate Finance Review, and Advances in Business Education and Training.

Mar 23: Leading AND Managing: 7 Strategies to Help You Excel at Both

This session will explore the essential strategies and techniques required to powerfully lead and manage simultaneously from the same role. Being a manager is one of the most arduous and yet most valuable roles in any organization. The challenge lies in dealing with the expectations of those above and below you while also contributing to people's success around you. When you master this, you will discover how to impact any organization from the middle. You will leave this class with the skills needed to powerfully evolve into a successful Manager.

Ms. Ann Tardy, a former Silicon Valley corporate attorney and a current leadership expert, speaker, and author, Ann has been studying how people impact organizations from the middle for over 25 years. As the author of four books, Ann serves as the Founder and CEO of LifeMoxie Mentoring & Leadership and the Founder and Director of The Mentoring Council. She has cycled from San Francisco to New Jersey and down each coast in a quest to discover what people love about their jobs. Her documentary Work Matters captured the interviews she conducted on the bike.

Apr 06: Idea Risk Management: A Practical Framework For Turning Ideas Into Results

Ideas exist within a high-risk, survival-of-the-fittest environment, and most die before they have an impact. The biggest risk any idea faces within your organization is that of getting lost in the muddle of the thousands of competing ideas that float through the environment on any given day. This highly interactive workshop will give you practical tools for identifying and mitigating risks to both tactical and strategic ideas within your organization. You will then apply these tools to a specific idea within your environment to increase the probability of its success.

Dr. John Eggert has helped leaders turn ideas into results in organizations as diverse as Arthur Andersen, Blue Cross/Blue Shield, British Petroleum, Citicorp, CNA Insurance, Ford Motor Company, General Motors, Hewlett-Packard, McDonalds, Motorola and Xerox. He has run his own performance improvement firm for over 30 years and has served on the graduate faculty of Syracuse University. He now spends his professional time coaching executives and their teams and giving presentations on Idea Risk Management. John holds a PH.D. in Social Science, with an emphasis on statistics and measurement.

Apr 26: Leadership Presence: How to Send All the Right Signals

Leadership presence, frequently called the "wow factor", is a blending of personal and interpersonal skills that when combined, send all the right signals.
