Mar 22: Overcoming Anger, Stress and Anxiety: A New Perspective on Management

Our energies are often entangled in coping with personal and work life tensions that induce stress, anger and anxiety. The seminar will give you techniques to unleash unconscious sources of positive energy to transform stress so endemic in the business world, generate profound breakthroughs in relating to others and cultivate an emotional culture that generates greater engagement and supports teamwork. Prior techniques of developing emotional intelligence have failed to explore the farther reaches of this creative potential that can result from opening new doors of perception in managers. This seminar, based on Eastern wisdom traditions like Zen, has been hailed as a paradigm shift in leadership training. It builds on emotional intelligence but goes beyond, leading us to a new vision for our relationship with ourselves and with others in generating a personalized presence.

Apr 06: The SUMO Principles of Leadership

In this highly interactive and practical workshop, Mr. McGee will explore his main SUMO (Shut Up, Move On) principles and how they impact our ability to inspire others. His principles relate to any leader whose organization would benefit from taking a fresh look at the following five key areas; Change, Relationships, Attitude, Motivation and Stress. Building on his background in behavioral and social psychology, he will give us time to reflect upon our behavior and that of others and identify what hinders our effectiveness.

Paul McGee is an international speaker, best-selling author and creator of the brand "SUMO: Shut Up, Move On." His goal is simple. He wants to help people achieve better results in life and have more fun in the process, as he seeks to deliver a memorable, motivational, moving-on experience. He has spoken in over 750 organizations in 35 countries. He has appeared on BBC Breakfast television and is a regular contributor to Radio 5live.

May 10: Strategic Leadership: Aligning the Key Elements that Drive Performance

Today's leaders are faced with a daunting challenge: maintaining performance and profitability while at the same time evolving their organizations to accommodate the new structures and technologies demanded by the networked economy. This highly interactive workshop will help leaders to assess their personal readiness - and that of their organization - to take advantage of the opportunities presented in today's unprecedented environment of change and innovation.

Sep 20: Championing Your Ideas at Work: Becoming Your Own Best Advocate

Successful advocates know how important it is to clearly communicate their ideas, how their reputations shape how people respond to their ideas, how they need to build partnerships and alliances with others in getting ideas adopted, how they must "pre-sell" any idea long before formal meetings, and how to be persuasive and influential in meetings. We will discuss new research on each of those topics - research that offers you interesting and surprising ways to champion innovations in your organization.

Nov 14: Managerial Courage: Five Skills to Increase Your Effectiveness

This seminar builds a talent management strategy around five Principles that go far beyond basic management rules. These Principles challenge normal management concepts and require participants to look at each employee they manage and formulate a development plan and/or communication strategy that best fits the individual. Each of the Principles is discussed in depth and numerous real work situations are used to illustrate how to get a better outcome for the organization and the individual that goes far beyond that one encounter. Not only do participants get useful day-to-day tools, but leadership strategies to use in numerous other business situations.
