THE HIDDEN LANGUAGE OF ORGANIZATIONS - WORKPLACE POLITICS, POWER AND INFLUENCE

Accomplishing the goals and objectives of any organization requires more than just smart employees who work hard. They need to be savvy as well if they are going to advance their careers or be promoted in any organization. Learn to master the one career skill no one talks about and business schools never teach, but that derails careers most often! Participants identify which of the rules of "positive politics" they are most likely to violate as well as obtain guidelines for being smart about their own conduct, about their business communication, about their relationships with co-workers and about their relationship with their supervisor. In addition, they learn numerous ways to recognize who really holds power and has influence, how to tap into the power structure within any organization, and how to network with minimal effort effectively inside and outside their organizations.
