LEAD WITH COURAGE: TRANSFORMING ORGANIZATIONAL DECISION-MAKING

In today's rapidly evolving business landscape, traditional leadership strategies often fall short, leaving leaders facing high rates of compassion fatigue and stagnant workplace engagement levels-hovering around 30% for years. Our traditional focus on emotional intelligence has made people happier, yet without improving business outcomes, while courageous leadership has often been met with resistance. This dynamic session introduces a new paradigm-LEAD (Logical, Effective, Accountable, Decision-making). By marrying critical thinking with a spirit of understanding and compassion, this approach redefines what it means to be a successful leader.

DR. NICOLE PRICE

Dr. Price received her B.S. in chemical engineering from North Carolina A&T University, her master's degree in adult education from Park University, her doctorate in leadership and management from Capella University, and completed postdoctoral studies at Stanford University. Her energetic and engaging sessions leave participants with strategies and specific tools that they can apply right away. Her lively presentation style garners rave reviews and, very often, invitations to return.
